

Today we went for a walk in our Wirra

We noticed the native cherry has fruit on it.

The Peramangk people eat native cherry fruit.

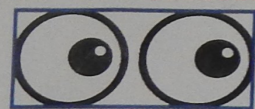

We all had a taste.

But first..... we talked about RESPECT for th bush

Welcome to our Wirra

Enter with.....

eyes of an owl

ears of a bandicoot

feet of a lizard

voice of a pigeon

We made a new sign to remind us

Wallace: It has one seed.

Finn: There was a seed OUTSIDE of the native cherry.

Amelia: The native cherries taste yummy.

Hugo: It was Yum!

There were LOTS of weeds ï

Do you have 30 minutes to pull someout?
